The Fairmont Empress (Victoria, BC) A prestigious member of Conde Nast's 2007 Gold List and One of the Top 500 Hotels in the World according to Travel+Leisure Magazine's 2007 rankings. Located approximately 45 miles from Vancouver. Rising regally on the banks of Victoria's Inner Harbour and representing the center of British Columbia's Capitol City, The Fairmont Empress has been completely restored to her turn-of-the-century beauty. The Fairmont Empress displays the grandeur of a bygone era, her facilities and services meet the needs of today's traveler. Whether you are looking to experience a British tradition with their famous Afternoon Tea, hold a meeting in their exceptional conference facilities, go on an ocean bound whale watching adventure, or spend an afternoon browsing Victoria's quaint shops, The Fairmont Empress is an excellent choice.

The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver Considered one of Canada's great railway hotels. Opened in 1939, the hotel has been host to Queen Elizabeth and her father King George VI. Restored in the 1990's, the hotel features a décor and an ambiance that is both elegant, yet relaxed. Located in the heart of the city, Vancouver's eclectic shopping area, Robson Street, is just a block away. The hotel's luxuriously appointed rooms are spacious and decorated in reproduction antique furniture, crown moldings and the soft luster of gold and cream. Closets are oversized and bathrooms feature a deep tub. The on-site recreation center has a glass-enclosed lap pool, kiddie pool, saunas, whirlpool and sun terraces, and guests may also use a complimentary membership to a nearby athletic club for squash courts and aerobics. This institution has a truly outstanding staff and continues to please discerning travelers in search of classic old-style surroundings.
